REDF is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by REDF in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. REDF's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

have earned and reinvested in their businesses more than $163 million in revenue and employed over 11,000 people, helping spending for government programs go further while improving lives and communities.

Now REDF is expanding the impact of its work nationally, building the field of social enterprise, deepening the evidence base to demonstrate the return on investment, and partnering with some of the most effective and innovative social enterprises around the country to strengthen their business, scale their impact, and help tens of thousands more people transform their lives and futures.

Social enterprises focused on employment are double-bottom line businesses that sell quality goods and services, and reinvest their revenue so they can hire and support more people who otherwise would be excluded from the job market. Employees of social enterprises are overcoming formidable challenges-like homelessness, incarceration, mental health and substance use struggles, and limited education-and are ready and willing to contribute, they just need that first step back into the workforce, and the support, to help them succeed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Developing Social Enterprise Leaders: REDF, through its Farber Program,
