Part X, Line 2:

REDF is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by REDF in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. REDF's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years,

Employer identification number 54-2132153

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission: REDF has earned and reinvested in their businesses more than $280 million in revenue and employed over 16,000 people, helping spending for government programs go further while improving lives and communities.

Social enterprises are businesses with a clear social mission, and they take their profits and invest it in helping people. These are businesses that both provide real jobs and help employees stabilize their lives with extra services - ones that help them build their skills and develop a work history. Those services might include financial literacy classes, housing, personal counselling, and help with business attire or work uniforms. When employees are ready, social enterprises help them find lasting, competitive jobs.

REDF invests specifically in social enterprises that have the explicit mission of hiring and supporting people who are overcoming the greatest barriers to work - including histories of homelessness and incarceration, substance abuse and mental health challenges, as well as limited education.

As businesses that must survive in the real world, social enterprises are different from traditional social service agencies. They are competitive places of commerce, built on quality goods or services people want. With a consumer niche and smart business savvy, social enterprises are able to make money and reinvest it to serve their mission of transforming lives. REDF's approach harnesses the power of the market for social impact.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

REDF's 990 is initially reviewed by the Director of Finance and President & CEO, followed by a review by REDF's audit committee. The audit committee includes two members of the Board of Directors who act on behalf of the Board. Upon approval by the audit committee, the 990 is provided to the full Board of Directors prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

REDF regularly and consistently enforces compliance with our conflict of interest policy through ongoing monitoring and an annual requirement for all leaders of the Organization (defined as Directors, Officers and Key Employees) to complete an affirmation and disclosure questionnaire.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

A compensation study is performed for all roles in the organization. Goals and compensation levels are set annually for all employees and reviewed and approved by the Executive Committee (President & CEO, Chief Financial and Administrative Officer and Chief Program Officer). Compensation levels are set within the boundaries of the annual Board approved organizational budget.
